

BVWG Website Members Bios

In order to be fair and to ensure some consistency in the information shared on BVWG.org, we are asking that specific information be provided, allowing members to write a brief description (a maximum of 250 words) about themselves and their writing.

NOTE: You must include items 1-7 to the best of your abilities and #10 to have your profile published on the site. Questions 8 and 9 are optional.

1. Your Name:
2. Where do you live? (General vicinity such as West Chester, Media, Newark, etc.)
3. Number of Years Writing or indicate if you are new to writing:
4. Genre(s):
5. Have you ever been published? Keep response general (IE. "I have published four books about local history." Or "I have been published in local magazines.") We have another page on the site that goes into the details of our published works.
6. Have you ever received any significant awards, fellowships, or recognition (other than publication) for your writing?
7. Do you belong to/participate in any BVWG subcommittees/subgroups such as a Critique Group, Freelancers Club, Web site Committee, etc.

OPTIONAL

8. Do you have any special interests / talents / hobbies outside of Writing in which you currently participate?
9. Do you have family, children, pets, or something different about your domestic life? (this may enable other writers outside the group to relate to us better personally)
10. PLEASE ANSWER: What do you hope to get from BVWG or add to BVWG through being a member? (please limit response to 150 words)
